Our Terms of Business

We generally require 50% of the funeral costs to be paid at the time of arrangement. There are sometimes variations to this depending on individual circumstances which we will be happy to talk through with you – just ask.

The balance is due within 30 days of the funeral.

Please note for direct cremations the full payment is due at the time of booking.

Payment can be made by cheque, bank transfer (BACS) and by credit card.

As a small business, prompt settlement of accounts is really important to us. Where payments become overdue we will take appropriate action to recover our costs, which may include passing the debt to a collections agent.
